2014 History Skills Workshop Series Schedule Announced

This year you'll find several new sessions; some 101-level workshops and some geared toward advance learners; and topics ranging from restoration and oral history to house museums and digitizing to grant writing and genealogy...all brought to you by the Historical Society of Michigan.

For full descriptions of each workshop and to register, visit our website.

These training opportunities help historical organizations and interested history advocates gain skills that can be applied in museums, organizations, and personal collections.

Workshops are held from 9 a.m. to noon at the Historical Society of Michigan Main Office at 5815 Executive Dr., Lansing, Michigan.

If you are a personal member of HSM or represent an organization that itself is a member of the Society, registration is $39. Registration for non-members is $79 and includes a one-year HSM membership. Refreshments and materials are included with your registration.

To register for a workshop, use our secure online registration form or call (800) 692-1828.

Keeping history at everyone's fingertips.

The Historical Society of Michigan is our state's oldest cultural organization, founded in 1828 by territorial governor Lewis Cass and explorer Henry Schoolcraft. A nongovernmental nonprofit, the Society focuses on publications, conferences, education, awards and recognition programming, and support for local history organizations to preserve and promote Michigan's rich history.
