For those who donate at the Bronze level ($50) or above, the Historical Society of Michigan will send you your choice* of one of the five FREE books listed below as a token of our appreciation!

The Michigan Eco-Traveler is written for those seeking to minimize their eco-footprints. The book examines the environmental pressures on the state's recreational resources and provides helpful tips for evaluating the sustainability of popular spots. University of Michigan Press • paperback

See our Northern Lower Peninsula like never before. The Changing Environment of Northern Michigan reveals the transformations that have happened in the upper mitten over the past century, including changes in ecosystems, habitats, environmental challenges, resources, and climate. University of Michigan Press • paperback

Written by both Northern and Southern poets, The Poetry of the American Civil War shares the prose of housewives, doctors, preachers, bankers, journalists, and teachers as they confronted questions of death, faith, slavery, patriotism, and politics. Michigan State University Press • paperback

Crusader for Justice: Federal Judge Damon J. Keith explores the life of Detroit-native Judge Keith. This biography examines the judge's early life, major cases, passion for racial and social justice, and professional and personal relationships. Wayne State University Press • hardcover

Railroads for Michigan recounts the long-awaited and often-troubled advent of the railroad in Michigan. It includes biographies of those responsible for the railroads' development and operation, as well as the triumphs and tragedies that shaped their lives. Michigan State University Press • hardcover

If you donate $192 or more, you will receive "The Glory Years of the Detroit Tigers" OR "Frontier Metropolis" OR a historic map poster IN ADDITION to your book choice from the above list.*

The Glory Years of the Detroit Tigers, 1920-1950 highlights the early years of the Tigers using hundreds of news reports and photos from Detroit newspapers of the time. Wayne State University Press • hardcover • autographed by the author

The full-color, large-format design of Frontier Metropolis: Picturing Early Detroit, 1701-1838 uses historic plans and maps to offer a unique look at Detroit's rich history from its earliest days as a French outpost. Wayne State University Press • hardcover

When Michigan became a state in 1837, printers Carey and Lea provided the First Map of the State of Michigan to the federal government, which was based on an 1822 map of the Michigan Territory. This reproduction is 21" x 17".

Why did we choose the number 192 for a donation level? The Historical Society of Michigan is celebrating its 192nd birthday in 2020! HSM was founded on June 23, 1828, to preserve and promote Michigan's history. And we are still doing that to this day, thanks to the support of our members and donors like you.

Thank you for your support!
