

RIGHT-SIZING YOUR TOPIC

Here are a few examples to help you narrow your topic. A tighter focus allows you to dig deeper.

AREA OF INTEREST →	Broad Focus →	Right Size
WORLD WAR II	Resistance in Europe	The White Rose
	Science and Technology	The Manhattan Project
	Military Campaigns	D-Day
CIVIL RIGHTS / RACIAL EQUITY	Black Communities	Montgomery Bus Boycott
	Latinx Communities	United Farmworkers Strikes
	Asian American Communities	Japanese Incarceration Camps
WOMEN	Legal Rights	Ruth Bader Ginsberg
SPORTS	Racism	1936 Berlin Olympics
MEDICINE	Diseases	1918 Flu Pandemic
FINE ARTS	Dance	Isadora Duncan & Modern Dance
YOUR HERITAGE:

Tips for Choosing Your Topic:

- Choose something that interests you. Everything has a history! You can consider social, cultural, political, technology, science, sports, arts, ideas, culture, heritage, and more.
- U.S., World, and local history topics are all welcome.
- Your topic must be historical. If you have a current event in mind, look for its roots.
- Be sure you can connect your topic to the annual theme.